There is nothing House of the Rising Sun does not have, from the breath taking ocean and National Park views with ample Living/Dining area - 22-foot vaulted ceiling, upper loft, fully-equipped gourmet Kitchen, library/Media room , two grand king Master Suite, 1 private apartment with full kitchen and 2 air-conditioned Guest Suites. The open floor plan gives you breathtaking views overlooking the large pool and jacuzzi with an incredible slide. Two incredible decks, the outdoor Bar/Kitchen --- complete with a gas grill and side burner and a covered area perfect for lounging, yoga platform or entertaining. All looking out to some of the most spectacular vistas in all of Costa Rica. Enjoy these breathtaking sights as well as the constant ocean breeze and subtle sounds of the breaking surf. You will look forward to daily visits from red winged parrots, hummingbirds, toucans, white faced, squirrel and howler monkeys as well as the ever-present fragrance of the ylang ylang tree (the essence of Chanel #5) that welcomes you and is only one of many tropical beauties in the private gardens. The entire home opens directly Costa Rican living --- and the perfect place to watch the world awaken. Or.....simply relax in the pool. This house has many amenities and has been fully renovated to top of the line equipment and beautiful wood craftsmanship through out the house and incredible decor. House of the Rising Sun is one of a kind and includes full stainless Bar and Kitchen with granite counter tops, imported marble and vanities in all baths, exotic jungle shower, indoor/outdoor high fidelity stereo system, large flat screen TVs with cable, Internet, DVD player, telephones, security alarm system and a safe. House of the Rising Sun is located in the exclusive and private neighborhood off Pacific Canyon Drive. Minutes from all types of entertainment, fine dinning and shopping as well as yoga and other fitness centers. Minutes from the beach and the world famous National Park of Manuel Antonio.
