List Price: $198,000

Located in: Pueblito Sur

Type: Business Opportunity

Located in Pueblito sur, right in the middle of all the neighborhood action in Playas del Coco, this is the one and only El Zarpe, the local and neighborhood bar with the best reputation for cocktails in town. As anyone who has visited this iconic locale can attest, the secret of El Zarpe's success is its commitment towards reinventing themselves, and keeping up with the flashiest drinks in the world.

El Zarpe has a trendy new feel with vibrant decor, calling in locals and tourists alike to come and enjoy the most innovative drinks, or perhaps simply a cold beer. This is the place where you can hang out with friends and make plans for a good time.

Only a block away from the beach, and at the entrance of the largely residential neighborhood of Las Palmas, El Zarpe boasts a privileged location where clients stroll through all the time, transforming this heavy foot traffic into palpable income.

El Zarpe means the last drink, but actually deciding what's your last drink at this bar can be quite a challenge when you're surrounded by the quaintness of its beautiful shared courtyard. There, you'll see gyms, taco stands, and the famous candled night dinners from other restaurants in the square.

All of these features make for El Zarpe a perfect setting for success in your investment. This is a legendary establishment loved by everyone in the area. Be it during a quick daytime cocktail or sharing with friends long into the night, El Zarpe will be there for all those looking for a good time, making this offering an incredible turnkey opportunity!
