MANUEL ANTONIO

Essentials

List Price:	$390,000
Beds:	4
Baths:	4
Size:	232 sq.m.
Lot size:	36 hectares

This amazing home is located in the spectacular mountains of the Santa Juana community, approximately one hour away from Quepos and half an hour from San Marcos de Tarrazu. Santa Juana is the first town of what is called Zona de Los Santos, home to some of the best coffees in the world.

This is a sustainable and ecofriendly property that is ideal for someone looking to live off grid, implementing the true meaning of sustainability while still being with good access and short drives to existing communities and eco tourism projects. The property is serviced with water from a natural spring, 100% of its electricity originates from its solar panels, and there is ample space to grow your own fruits and vegetables; with a total of 36 hectares, you will have enough space to let your imagination fly!

This property has 360 views. You can see impressive mountains full of giant trees, coffee plantations, fruit trees, and dramatic valleys on one side. On the other side, you have breathtaking panoramic ocean views where you can see the sun setting each day over the Pacific coastlines.

The communities of Quepos, Manuel Antonio, with the world-famous Marina Pez Vela's lights, glimmer in the distance from the cool mountain location which is close enough for access but far enough away to make you feel a world apart. The house is well built with three bedrooms, three full baths, along with a spacious living & dining area.

The home is equipped with custom built furniture made from cedar and Cenizaro which is a stunning local hardwood. In today's world, we are seeing more and more people who are ready to find a place of true peaceful living, where the sights and sounds of nature dominate that the stresses and pace of city life. Look no further.

Living amongst the "saints" in the zona de Los Santos evokes a sense of tranquility and well-being that words can't do justice to, but anyone looking for value and the magic of nature, look no further. There is also a 46 square meters house for caretaker or family and friends visit with 1-bedroom, full bathroom, dining and living area, and kitchen with granite countertop.
