Casa del Toro is an incredibly special home and offering here in the Manuel antonio area. This three bedroom, three and one half bathroom luxury rental home is a fantastic turn key ready investment or private luxury estate home.

The property, which measures over 1200 meters in size is located in the Pajaro Azul subdivision and offers panoramic views of the Fila Chonta Mountain range and the Pacific Coastline.

The home is the last on a dead end street and has a natural preserve to one side that creates a unique sense of privacy and serenity but in a home that is just minutes away from Marina Pez Vela and all the activities that make the Manuel Antonio area so popular.

The home is one of the only ones in the area with a flowing single story floor plan. While there are steps to access the home from the covered carports, once upstairs, you have three spacious bedrooms, each with its own on suite bath and two of which offer beautiful views to the mountains and Pacific.

Perhaps the most attractive part of the home is the open floor plan kitchen living and terrace which are made to just sit back, relax and soak in the views and vibe. The spacious living, dining and kitchen are all in a space that can be closed off with a/c or can be opened up to integrate with the huge covered terrace where there is a second outdoor living space.

The union of this indoor and outdoor living is what Costa Rica is all about and is where most guests spend their time. The home has one of the larger tiled pools with plenty of terrace space to soak in the sun and enjoy the daily visits from wildlife or just marvel at the panoramic setting.

The home has been a successful rental property for years giving the owners both sustainability and plenty of personal use. There is management in place to make for an easy and turn key ready ownership.
