Description

Located in Rohrmoser, directly in front of the Parque del Cafe, Qbo Skyhomes was inspired by urban lifestyles around the globe, for executives, couples or families seeking the conveniences of a truly central location, who wanted to live in a vertical condo, without sacrificing the comfort and amenities of a first class community. The location was carefully selected to provide quick access to the main arteries taking residents to San Jose, Escazu, Heredia, airport and beach highway within minutes, while providing the benefits of walking out of the building and breathing the fresh air of one of the area's most impressive parks, abound with century old trees. Furthermore, as this area is the up and coming residential neighborhood, new cafes, international restaurants and amenities continue to thrive making this area, and Qbo an excellent lifestyle. Did I mention amenities? Qbo developers, H Solis, spared no expense in the creation of world class amenities for the residents of this building, starting with an impressive atrium lobby, resort like pool and sun deck, jacuzzi, sauna, multiple gyms, co-working facility, bar/lounge, and of course, underground parking and 24 hour security. While Qbo offers a number of 1, 2 and 3 bedroom condos, Qbo 1606 truly stands in a league of its own. Purchased by its owners in a preconstruction phase, these owners who are also experienced and successful real estate developers, this condo is like the others in the building only in name and location. The owners went to great lengths both with their time and financial resources to create an incomparable 16th floor, 2 bedroom spacious residence with top of the line, luxury finishes, and details throughout. From the custom floors, to the imported kitchen, state of the art, smart lighting and sound system, to the bathroom finishes and fixtures, no expense was spared to create this loft experience.
